

JURPA is a peer-reviewed undergraduate publication of the Society of Physics Students which aims to highlight and celebrate undergraduate research. This journal is explicitly designed for undergraduates to publicly disseminate their Physics, Astronomy, and closely-related field research and scholarly works. The process is designed to support both advisers and students.

Submit Your Research Today!

Papers in the area of pure, applied, computational, or theoretical physics and astronomy are accepted throughout the entire academic year.

Issue Deadline:
March 15

JURPA is hosted by AIP Publishing, printed each summer, and sent to all chapters. Manuscripts should be letter length (3 pages, including figures and tables, and can include appendices online). All current undergraduate SPS and Sigma Pi Sigma members are eligible to submit to JURPA!
